Junior Diamond League

What is Junior Diamond League?

Junior Diamond League is a new term for what everyone is familiar with as the 10u tournament team with a few new items added. JDL is a competitive baseball league started by Brandywine Youth Baseball Association for players 10 and under. It has been in existence for 3 years and has provided a great stepping stone to prepare for the Tournament season. After the JDL Season ends the team will begin to play the normal Tournament Circuit.

What is the Commitment?

This is a competitive league and M.T.A.A. players who are chosen for JDL will not play in our In-House League. The JDL season runs from April to May. Games will be played as double headers on Sundays over six weeks. Tournaments will begin shortly thereafter and run until mid July. The team will play about 28 games and practices will be two to three times per week. Parents please be aware that traveling will be required.

Are You Interested?

Final roster size has not been determined and I encourage all interested players to attend all evaluations. Anyone wishing to be on the team needs to attend one of the evaluation sessions. If you do not attend, you will not be permitted on the team. The age cut-off date for the league is May 1st. All players 10 & under who are interested must contact Stan Kuczawa by December 24, 2009.
